Service of Ordination

Musical Prelude:

Processional:

All please stand as the President, Vice President and other Conference Leaders enter.

Introit: Wesley Centre Choir

Chaplain: Kia ora e te whanau o te Haahi Weteriana, Talofa lava, Malo e Lelei, Ni sa Bula Vinaka.
Welcome to this service where we worship
God, celebrate the ministry of the whole people of God, and ordain people to ministries within the Church.

Ka whakawhetai tonu matou ki a koe e te Atua;

Ka whakawhetai tonu matou
Kei te tata mai hoki tou ingoa
E korerotia ana e te tangata au mahi whakamiharo.

(We give thanks to you, O God.

We give thanks to you.

We proclaim how great you are and tell of the wonderful things you have done.)

- Psalm 75:1

Response: Kororia ki a koe e te Atua.
(Glory to you, O God.)

Lighting of the Conference Candle.

Chaplain:

Kia inoi tatou:
E te Wairua Tapu, e te Wairua Aroha.
Mai i au kupu kei te mohio matou ko koe te ara tika, ko koe te pono me te ora. Awhina i a matou ki te whai i ou akoranga i runga tonu i te hari me te koa, a ka whakanui hoki i te ora ki roto i o matou kupu me o matou mahi. Amine.

*(Holy and Loving Spirit.
We know from your word that you are the way and the truth and the life. Help us to willingly follow the wisdom of your way, to joyfully celebrate the truth of your love and triumphantly proclaim all things. Amen.)*

Processional Hymn: “In the name of Christ we gather”

The Ordinands enter during the singing of this hymn and will take their seats in the front row.

In the name of Christ we gather in the name of Christ we sing, celebrate new vows, new promise of a life's whole offering, here ordained to lead God's people to the Gospel's beckoning.

Sons and daughters of the Spirit –
these are called to teach and care, called as were the first disciples, commonwealth of Christ to share,
by the bread and wine and water sacraments of grace declare.

In the ministry of preaching may the Word spring into life; in the time of doubt and challenge may its truth affirm belief; in the day of pain and darkness heal the hurt of guilt and grief.

Now within this solemn moment we invoke the power of God – by the hands laid on in blessing be there strength to take the load, be there faithfulness in loving,
be there courage for this road.

Word of joy, enlivening Spirit,
more than lover, parent, friend,
born in Jesus, born in Mary,
born to us that love extend,
grow within your chosen servant,
life of God that has no end.

Shirley Murray

Tune: Westminster Abbey, WOV 343(ii)

President: Whakapaingia te Atua i runga, i raro, i waho, i roto i tenei, i tenei o tatou e mine nei.
(Blessed is God who is above and below, without and within each one of us gathered here.)

All: Whakapaingia te Atua kei nga wahi katoa.
(Blessed is God in all places.)

Tumuaki: Ko koe te Atua tapu, te tino Atua
Nou te mana, te ihi, te wehi.
Nou te ao, te mauri, te ora.
Nou te katoa, i te rangi, i te whenua.
Ko koe tonu te Atua.

President: We belong to a tradition which follows the way of Jesus the Christ.

All: This is the way of humility and love, of integrity and self-offering.

Vice President: We celebrate the lives of all who have helped us catch the vision of the Gospel in Aotearoa.

We are thankful for the ministry of all the baptised,
All: called to be salt of the earth and light to the world.

Vice President: We are thankful for the ministry of deacons,
All: called to be pioneers in mission.

Vice-President: We are thankful for the ministry of presbyters
All: encouraging us to be the body of Christ.

President: In silence let us take time to reflect on aspects of ministry for which we are thankful; and on those aspects where we have fallen short of the vision of the Gospel.

Silence

President: God of life,
when we ignore the life-giving vision of the Gospel,
when we fail to keep alive the prophetic tradition,
when we neglect to show respect and compassion:

All: Forgive us and bring us again to new life.

President: We are forgiven.
God's love never ends.

All: Thanks be to God.

Inoi O Te Ariki

(The Lord's Prayer)

Tumuaki: E Ihowa tohungia matou
E te Karaiti tohungia matou

Tumuaki: E Ihowa tohungia matou

All: E to matou Matua i te rangi
Kia tapu tou Ingoa.
Kia tae mai tou rangatiratanga.
Kia meatia tau e pai ai ki runga ki te whenua.
kia rite ano ki to te rangi.
Homai ki a matou aiane
he taro ma matou mo tenei ra.
Murua o matou hara,
me matou hoki e muru nei
i o te hunga e hara ana ki a matou.
Aua hoki matou e kawea kia whakawaia;
engari whakaorangia matou i te kino;
nou hoki te rangatiratanga,
te kaha me te kororia, ake, ake, ake. Amine

Address: The Spirit of Discernment
Rev Dr Trevor Hoggard

Affirmation of Faith

Director: Rev Dr Trevor Hoggard
We are not alone – we live in God's world

All: We believe in God:
who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus,
the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others
by the Spirit.
We trust in God.
We are called to be the Church:
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus,
crucified and risen,
our Judge and our Hope.
in life, in death,
in life beyond death,
God is with us.
We are not alone.
Thanks be to God.

The Charge to the Church

President: God loves creation and seeks to bring it to fulfilment.

As a sign of that love, God called a people who became a community of faith we call church.

All are invited into this household of faith which God, through the Holy Spirit, enlivens and strengthens in ministry.

Vice President: The Spirit gives boldness, community, hope, wisdom and understanding.

It is the Spirit who bestows gifts for ministry which fashion and guide the life of Christ's people.

The Church calls all people to the freedom and fullness of Jesus.

Concern for people, a healing spirit, restoration of relationships, and willingness to commit ourselves to the wellbeing of others, shape all that the followers of Christ seek to do.

In its pastoral ministry, the Church offers Christ's love to all people, through ministries of service and care.

President: The Church is true to God when it celebrates God's goodness in the lives of people and communities, and when, through its ministry, it cares for others: offering, in Christ's name, water to the thirsty, bread to the hungry, empowerment to the exploited, and hope to the outcast. The Church is built on the tradition of the apostles. Their faith became a channel of God's active power in human history. Their ministry of word, sacrament and care built up God's people in courage, hope and joy.

In the name of God, we charge you to exercise this ministry. May you be given the assurance of one fully committed to this service, the resolve that comes from sharing ministry with God's people, and the trust that God will guide and direct you.

Affirmation of Ministry

The Ordinands come to the stage area

The congregation stands

The President and Vice President address all present

President: The Holy Spirit has been at work in our lives. We believe that as lay people, deacons or presbyters, each of us is called by God to ministry.

Ordinands: Do you affirm your calling to mission and ministry in the world?
We do.

Vice President: Will you seek to nourish your ministry by prayer, study and worship within the community of faith?

Ordinands: We will.

President: Will you seek to lead a life of integrity and express God's goodness and love through the gifts God has given you?

Ordinands: We will.

Ordinands return to their seats

Hymn: "O thou who camest from above"

O thou who camest from above the pure celestial fire to impart, kindle a flame of sacred love on the mean altar of my heart!

There let it for thy glory burn with inextinguishable blaze;
and trembling to its source return,
in humble prayer and fervent praise.

Jesus, confirm my heart's desire to work, and speak, and think for thee;
still let me guard the holy fire,
and still stir up thy gift in me,

Ready for all thy perfect will,
my acts of faith and love repeat,
till death thy endless mercies seal,
and make the sacrifice complete.

Tune: Wilton, WOV 486 (i)*

Congregation sits as Deacon Ordinand comes forward

The Ordination of a Deacon

President: Falanisesi, do you acknowledge your calling to a ministry of caring service to be expressed in places of need?

Deacon: I do.

Vice-President: Will you freely share with all who seek them the water of life, the healing of love, and the vision of renewal?

Deacon: I will.

Vice-President: Do you acknowledge that your ministry is to be exercised within the care and discipline of the Methodist Church of New Zealand, Te Haahi Weteriana O Aotearoa?

Deacon: I do.

Vice-President: Falanisesi, will you give glory to God, Alpha and Omega, Beginning and End?

Deacon: I will.

Deacon: God, you are my Companion.
In the name of Christ
I will gladly serve you.

President: Like the first disciples, waiting for your coming, empowering Spirit, we watch and pray.

Silence

President: Holy Spirit of God, meet us in this moment as you met the disciples of old.
Be with us, Holy Spirit.

All: Bring faith and hope, we pray.

President: Come, Holy Spirit.

All: Be present in your power.

The congregation remains seated

The Laying on of Hands

Connexional leaders and Sponsors come forward

President: Give your Holy Spirit to Falanisesi whom we ordain Deacon in the name of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, that she may faithfully fulfil a ministry of caring service.

All: Amine.
Ki te Atua te whakawhetai.

The Vice-President pours water into the Deacon's bowl

President: Take as a symbol for your ministry this bowl and towel, the bowl made from the earth of Aotearoa that the water of your caring may bring life to our land.

Water of life
Gift of God
Our gift to one another

The emblem and certificate is presented

Vice-President: Falanisesi, we praise God for your commitment to serve God as Deacon. Serve patiently and cheerfully, remembering that the work you are called to do is God's work. It is in God's hands, in God's name, and to God's glory.

President: Follow Christ whose servant you are. Share the burden of those whose cross is heavy. You are marked as a person who proclaims that among the truly blessed are the poor, the troubled, the powerless and the persecuted.

Vice-President: You are called to be what you proclaim. Serve Christ simply and willingly, and let your joy in Christ overcome all discouragement. Have no fear; be humble and full of hope.

Deacon moves to pulpit

Intercessory Prayer

Deacon: Come Holy Spirit, in your renewing power. Move in our labouring with the energy of your being and bring to birth in us the true life of your Church.

All: Come, Holy Spirit,
In your renewing power

Deacon: Move in the world with the streams of your justice. Give waters of life to the poor And rivers of freedom to the oppressed.

All: Come, Holy Spirit,
In your renewing power.

Deacon: Move in our hearts with the fire of your love.
Spread the warmth of your healing
And the flame of your transforming life.

All: Come Holy Spirit,
In your renewing power.
In the name of Christ.
Amen.

Hymn: “Brother, sister, let me serve you”

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
Let me be as Christ to you,
pray that I may have the grace
to let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey,
we are traveller's on the road, we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear,
I will hold my hand out to you, speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping,
when you laugh, I'll laugh with you,
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven,
we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together of Christ's love, and agony.

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you,
pray that I may have the grace
to let you be my servant too.

- Richard Gillard, Alleluia Aotearoa 8

The Ordination of Presbyters

The congregation is seated as the Presbyter Ordinands come forward

President: Do you affirm your calling to an apostolic Ministry of Word, Sacrament and Pastoral Care, for building up the Body of Christ?

In the name of Christ
I will gladly serve you.

Director Mission Resourcing: Like the first disciples, waiting for your coming, empowering Spirit, we watch and pray.

Silence

Director Mission: Resourcing: Holy Spirit of God, meet us in this moment
as you met the disciples of old.
Be with us, Holy Spirit,
bring faith and hope, we pray.

Come, Holy Spirit,
Be present in your power.

Church representatives come forward and stand around the Ordinands – the two Sponsors chosen by each of the Ordinands will come forward.

The Laying on of Hands

The Ordinands kneel

Sponsors for each of the Ordinands come forward as each one is called.

Congregation remains seated and is invited to pray for the Ordinands.

President: God of grace, through your Holy Spirit, empower your servant
whom we ordain presbyter in your name, giving to him/her authority to preach your Word, to administer the sacraments, to declare your forgiveness and be pastor to your people

All: Amen.

A Stole is placed on the newly ordained Presbyter

At the conclusion of all the ordinations a blessing is sung for all the newly ordained, Deacon and Presbyters.

Blessing: Hastings Samoan Choir

President: Akinihi Keita Hotere, Alivereti Uludole, Finau Halaleva, Hosea Tupou, Ieremia Amani Amituana'i, Joeli Ducivaki, Melema'u Molitika, Moimoi 'Ahaui Kaufononga, we praise God for your commitment to serve as presbyters. Serve with patience and humility, remembering that the work you are called to is God's work.

Vice President: You are called to work in God's service following Christ's example.
Stand beside those whose burdens are heavy.
Each of you is a person who proclaims that among the truly blessed are the poor, the troubled, the powerless and the persecuted.

President: You are called to be what you proclaim.
Serve Christ simply and willingly and let your joy in Christ overcome all discouragement.
Be people of hope.

Bibles and certificates are presented to the newly ordained.

..... take this Bible, symbol of the authority you have received to preach the Word of God and to administer the Sacraments in the congregations to which you are appointed.

TE INOI TUKU HAPA

President:: Mai i nga iwi katoa ka tuku whakamoemiti matou ki te Karaiti e noho nei i roto i a matou, kiki ana i te marie me te pono. I whakamatea i runga i te ripeka, i ara ake i te mate kia ora tonu ai tatou, na reira matou e inoi nei me te whakanui i a ia.

Tapu, tapu, he tapu te Ariki.
Te Atua o te mana me te kaha.
Kii tonu te rangi me te whenua i tou kororia.

Ohana i runga rawa.

The Thanksgiving

President: The Christ is here.

All: God is with us.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

President: With all your people we give thanks for The Christ who lives within us and among us full of grace and truth. Who suffered death on the cross and was raised from death that we might have life, and so we worship and praise you.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Whakapaingia a ia e haere mai nei
i runga i te ingoa o te Ariki.
Ohana i runga rawa.

President:

I te po i mua i tona matenga, ka tango ia i te taro kia tuku whakawhetai ki a koe.
Ka whawhati, ka hoatu ki ana akonga, a ka mea; "Tangohia, kainga, ko toku tinana tenei ka hoatu nei mo koutou. Meinga tenei hei whakamahara ki ahau."

Ka mutu te hapa, ka mau ia i te kapu,
Ka tuku whakawhetai ki a koe, ka hoatu ki a ratou, a, ka mea;
"Inumia tenei, ko oku toto o te Kawenata hou i whakahekea mou, mo te katoa, hei murunga hara".

Te Katoa:

Kororia ki a koe e te Karaiti.
E maumahara ana matou i to matenga,
E hari koa ana matou i to aranga mai,
Ka kauhautia e matou to piringa mai.
Amine.

INOI MO TE WAIRUA TAPU

President:

Kuhu mai e te Wairua Tapu, whakakiia o matou ngakau ki te hari koa mo enei taonga o te paraoa me te waina, kia whakaoritea ki te tumanako o te paraoa o te ora me te kapu o te kawenata hou, Whakawhaitihia mai matou hei iwi mo tenei wahi, kia tupu ai matou i roto i te oranga tonu e karangatia mai nei e te Karaiti.

Te Katoa:

Amine.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

President: On the night before he offered up his life
Jesus took bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: this is my body given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup, offered thanks, and gave it to them saying, “Drink this, all of you:
for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many,
for the forgiveness of sins.”

All: Glory to you, Lord Christ:
Your death we proclaim;
Your resurrection we celebrate;
Your coming we await.
Amen.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

President: Come Holy Spirit, and fill our hearts with joy that these gifts of bread and wine may be to us the bread of life and the cup of the New Covenant hope. Bind us together as your people in this place that we may grow to the fullness to which Christ calls us.

All: Amen.

Te Whatiwhatinga o Te Paraoa

President: Ka huri matou ki a koe e te Atua kia mohio ano ai matou ki a koe i tenei wa, me te mohio hou ki a koe ia wa e kai ana matou i te paraoa me te inu i te waina.

Te Katoa: E maumahara ana matou ki a koe e Ihu, ko koe nei te kanohi o te Atua, he aroha tapu i waenga i a matou, ka whakawhetai matou.

President: E maumahara ana matou ko matou nga Akonga a te Atua kua murua nga hara, kei waenga i a matou a te Karaiti kua ara, kei te karanga ia kia maranga mai ka whai atu i muru i a ia.

Te Katoa: No reira ka haere totika mai matou ki to tepu e Ihowa, e whakapono ana i roto i te aroha rangimarie. Ka tangohia e matou tenei paraoa me tenei waina, kia tupu ai matou i roto ia koe, me koe hoki i roto i a matou. Amine.

President: Ko te paraoa ka whatia nei, hei whakakotahi te ao ki te Karaiti, te paraoa o te ora. Ko te kapu o te manaaki e whakamoemiti nei tatou, he urunga ki te kawenata a te Karaiti o to tatou oranga. Kia puta te maramatanga o te aroha, o enei tohu he homaitanga na te Karaiti, he mea hou ia ra, kia watea ai tatou ki te aroaro o te Atua me te tahuri ki nga nawe o te ao.

Te Katoa: Amine.

The Breaking of the Bread

President: We turn to you God, in order to know you again for the first time, and to remember you anew each time we eat of this bread and drink this wine.

All: We remember you Jesus, as the human face of God, as divine love in our midst and give thanks.

President: We remember we are God's forgiven people, that Christ's risen presence is with us calling us to rise up and follow him.

All: And so we boldly come to your table, Lord, trusting in your gracious love. We take this bread and wine that we may grow in you and you in us. Amen.

President: The bread, which we break, is a sharing of life with Christ, the bread of life.

The cup of blessing for which we give thanks is a sharing in the covenant of Christ, the hope of our lives.

May we see through these symbols to the love that Christ offers us anew each day, that we might be free to live in the presence of God and the service of the world.

All: Amen.

Hymn:

“I come with joy”

Tune: ‘St Peter’

I come with joy to meet my Lord, forgiven, loved, and free, in awe and wonder to recall his life laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed, the new community of love
in Christ's communion bread.

As Christ breaks bread and bids us share,
each proud division ends.
That love that made us makes us one,
and strangers now are friends.

And thus with joy we meet our Lord.
His presence, always near,
is in such friendship better known:
we see and praise him here.

Together met, together bound,
we'll go our different ways,
and as his people in the world,
we'll live and speak his praise.

The newly ordained and other Communion Servers will move forward to receive communion from the President and Vice President and then move to take up their serving stations.

You will shortly be invited to go to the server of your choice, and we ask please that you be mindful of queues.

The organ will play during the serving of the bread and wine.

All the wafers will be gluten free.

The bread and wine is served to everyone by intinction, an explanation of intinction is found on the back page of this order of service.

Te Kai Hapa

Vice President: Whakatata mai, i te kaha me te mana a Te Wairua Tapu.
Haere mai ki te Kai Hapa i te taha o te Karaiti e aroha nei ki a koutou. Tukuna ia ki roto i o koutou ngakau ka noho i runga i te harikoa.
(Draw near, strengthened by the power of the Holy Spirit. Come into Communion with the Christ who loves you and live with him in your hearts with great joy)

Te Katoa: Amine.

Vice President: Ko tenei te tinana o Ihu Karaiti, te paraoa o te ora.
Ko tenei te kapu o te kawenata hou o te Karaiti, te tumanako o te ora.
(The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, the bread of life.
The cup of the New Covenant of Christ, the hope of our lives).

The Congregation move to receive communion

Post Communion Prayer

All: Life-giving God,
we give you thanks for the gift of Jesus' presence in the simplicity and splendour of this holy meal.
Unite us with all who are fed by the life of Christ that we may faithfully proclaim the good news of your love and that your church may be a sign of hope in an uncertain world;
through Jesus Christ breaker of bread and pourer of wine,
the bread of life and the true vine. Amen.

Reception into Full Connexion

Those newly ordained come forward

General Secretary:

President Tovia, Vice President Arapera, Members of Conference, we have celebrated the ordinations of: *Falanisesi

General Secretary: I recommend Falanisesi Hafoka, Akinihi Keita Hotere, Alivereti Uludole, Finau Halaleva, Hosea Tupou, Ieremia Amani Amituana'i, Joeli Ducivaki, Melema'u Molitika, Moimoi 'Ahou Kaufononga, be received into Full Connexion by this Conference.

Vice President: Members of Conference, please stand to affirm these ministries.

President: Eternal God, in our searching for you we discovered it was you who found us. You have made yourself known to us as the God of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Said by all being received into Full Connexion

O God, you have called us as Christ's disciples to make your love known and live the Good News.
We have often tried to tell you that for such a task we feel ill-equipped and unprepared.

Yet you do not give in to our protests.
Instead, you fill us with the promise of your grace and the reassurance of your enabling.

Loving God, we know that by your Spirit we will have courage to endure and strength to continue;
we will have tomorrows filled with promise,
and Good News to proclaim.
Amen.

The organ will play while those received into Full Connexion sign the Church's Ethical Standards.

President: Go into the world in the power of the Spirit.

All: We go to serve in the name of Christ.

Recessional: Jonty Zydenbos

Please remain standing while the newly ordained, and the Presidential party process from the service.

Serving the Holy Communion

During the sacrament of Holy Communion the bread and wine will be served by intinction to all who come forward. There will be two servers, one with a paten (plate) and the other with the chalice. Those receiving the bread and wine will take a wafer and dip it in the wine in the chalice, (taking care not to insert their fingers into the wine) and then eat the wafer.

Intinction as a way of serving the elements of Holy Communion dates back to the early life of the Christian Church where it became a regular practice. While it had disappeared from use in the Western Church by 1200, recent times have seen its revival. Intinction as a means of serving Holy Communion has been used at several Methodist Conferences in recent years. It has the support of the Faith and Order Committee.

If you are receiving communion from the newly ordained please refrain from greeting them. Save your greeting till the service is ended.

Anyone not able to receive the bread and wine at this service because of their church tradition is invited to come forward and request a blessing.
