

INTRODUCTION TO CONFERENCE

Methodist Conference 2018

Christchurch

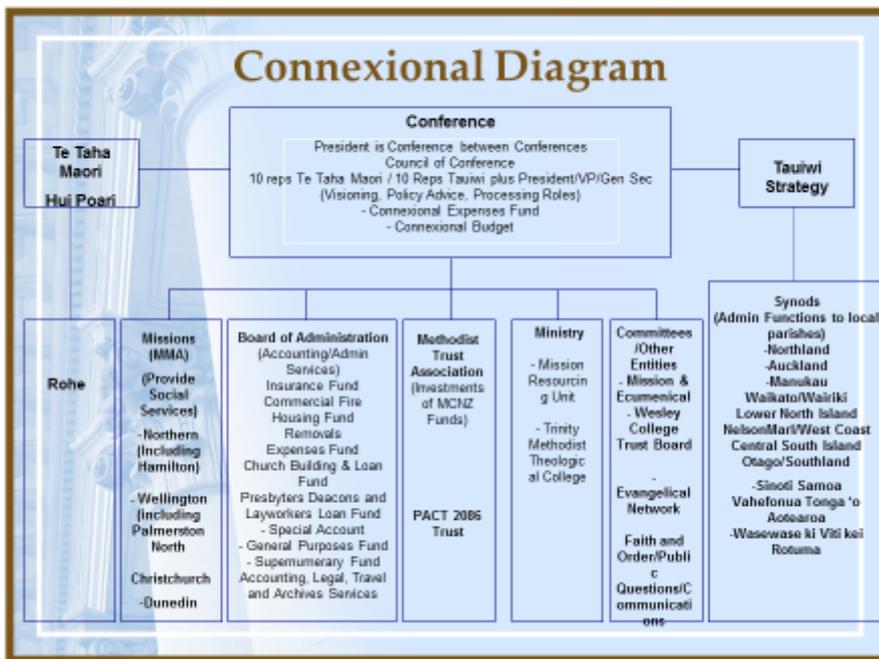

Te Haahi Weteriana O Aotearoa

THE ANNUAL METHODIST CONFERENCE

There are three levels of organisational life in with Methodism:

	Tauiwi	Te Taha Māori
Locally	Parish	Rohe
Regionally	Synod	Hui Pōari
Nationally	Annual Conference	Hui Toopu

Below you will see a diagram which sets out the structure of the Church as it relates to the Conference.

Every ordained Methodist Presbyter and Deacon is entitled to attend the Conference, and each Parish is entitled to send one lay representative to Conference for every Minister appointed to the Parish. The parity of lay and clergy representation is very important in the ethos of Methodism and was a principle established by John Wesley himself.

The Conference is about being Methodist at a national level, in the way we live in society and the way we do our mission by:

- Affirming what has been done in the past year
- Hearing how things are at the moment
- Setting the agenda and priorities for the year ahead

It is not a place where local congregations seek solutions to their problems – this is the role of Synod and Synod Superintendents.

The Annual Conference has two distinct phases:

Phase One Inspirational

This Year all Conference events are being held at St Andrews College, Christchurch.

Conference begins on Saturday with a Powhiri at 10am which will be followed by a service to honour those who have died during this year. This will be followed by lunch, during which the President and Vice-President gather with the families of the deceased. At 2.00pm is the Induction service for the incoming Presidential Team followed at 4.45pm by a welcome to the official visitors, Reception of the Ordinands and others into Full Connexion, tributes to ministers who are retiring from active service and those who have held Connexional appointments. Conference gathers again at 6.30pm in the Gymnasium for dinner and a multicultural festival.

On Sunday morning services will be held in Methodist and Union Churches around Christchurch and you will find details of these in the Conference Handbook.

The Ordination service, is in the Chapel at St Andrews College at 2.00pm, and is where Conference formally acknowledges those who have been through a period of theological education and probationary ministry and have been assessed as ready for ordination.

The Conference timetable lists other gatherings to which all Conference members are invited e.g. The Wesley Historical Society dinner and lecture, the Evangelical and Liberal network gatherings etc.

Phase two – The Business Sessions

On Monday morning of Conference:

- Conference opens each day at 8.30am with notices, singing and worship
- 11.00am is the presentation of the Conference Agenda, Introductions, Consensus Decision Making and Questions 1-24, receiving enbloc decisions.

- Conference is intending to do its business in a different way this year so at 1.30pm and 4pm Conference members will gather in workgroups of about 45 where there will be facilitated discussion around a particular allocated topic. This Topic will include the business of one or more of the Conference reporting groups.
- At 7pm the Ex President and Vice-President will speak to the Conference about their time in Office.

Consensus Decision Making (familiarise yourself with the process on blue page 10 of the Agenda)

As part of its commitment to Bi-Culturalism and power-sharing, Conference has adopted some principles for making decisions. These are:

- A decision is only made when it is clear that both partners- Taha Maori and Tauwiwi can state that they agree with the suggested decision.
- Taha Maori or Tauwiwi may caucus if this will enable their group to reach agreement so a partnership decision can be explored.
- When the partners do not agree, no decision can be made.

Who is able to take part in Conference?

Any person who is a full member of the Conference may speak. If you wish to speak you would normally raise your hand to indicate you wish to do so and then you would move to the nearest microphone. If there are a number of people wishing to speak they often sit in order near the microphone and await their turn.

When you stand to speak you would first acknowledge the President or Vice-President – whichever one is in the chair by saying:

“President Setaita or Vice-President Nicola, members of Conference”, then immediately follow with your name and who you represent e.g. “Jennifer Blow, Dunedin Parish”.

If you would like to introduce yourself in Te Reo say:

State your point of debate clearly and succinctly. Do not repeat the arguments of previous speakers. You may also move to a microphone to ask for clarification if something is not clear.

Who are the key people involved?

The Presidential Team

President:	Rev Setaita Taumoepeau K. Veikune
Vice President:	Nicola Teague Grundy
Ex President:	Rev Prince Devanandan
Ex Vice President:	Viv Whimster

Selection process for

President/Vice-President Elect: Tauivi agreed on its names to go forward to the 5+5 selection group as did Te Taha Maori. The 5+5 will reach a consensus and report this to the Conference

Elders

The Council of Elders enable and assist the Church in its Bi-cultural Journey by seeking to model the equal partnership prefigured in the Treaty of Waitangi, and specifically it may:

- (a) monitor recommendations of all Conference Committees and Boards of the Conference;
- (b) reflect and comment on the style, work and priorities of all Conference Committees and Boards;
- (c) refer back for further consideration any report or recommendation which the Council of Elders considers will hinder or divert the Church from its Bi-cultural Journey;
- (d) report each year to the Conference.

The Council of Elders is appointed each year at Conference and consists of two people nominated by Te Taha Maori and two people nominated by Tauivi Strategy and affirmed by the Tauivi meeting.

The current Elders are: Anne Peri and Julie-anne Barney-Katene for Te Taha Maori and Barbara Peddie and Jan Fogg for Tauivi.

How to get the most out of Conference for yourself

- Each day set yourself a goal of achieving 3 things you would not normally do
- Eat with different people/cultures
- If you don't understand things – ask someone! Knowledge is power!
- Volunteer for a task you never tried before.
- Be prepared to give a clear and well presented report to your congregation on Sunday 7 October, 2018.
