Church address: 261 Bank Street, Te Awamutu

Shakespeare Said...!

I always feel happy. You know why? Because I don't expect Anything from anyone.

Expectations always hurt.

Life is short. So, love your life.

Be happy. And keep smiling.

Just live for yourself and before you speak. Listen. Before you write, Think. Before you spend,

Earn. Before you pray, Forgive.

Before you hurt, feel. Before you hate, Love. Before you quit,

Try. Before you die, Live

Lectionary Readings for this Sunday:

2 Samuel 7: 1-14a In a time of relative peace David's hopes of building a temple during his reign are not supported by Nathan the prophet.

Psalm 89: 20-37

Ephesians 2: 11-22 Paul affirms that God's revelation, once realised for the Jews alone, is now a universal, multi-cultural community of fellow citizens in Christ.

Mark 6: 30-34, 53-56 Mark notes that Jesus finds it difficult to escape from the pressing crowds, even when he tries to find a quiet haven to rest with the disciples.

We pray for others

- For folk whose travel plans have been disrupted by Covid restrictions
- For all those affected by the recent shootings – the policemen, their families, the witnesses, the perpetrators – all traumatised by the horror.
- For people coping with pain while they await surgery.

Coming Events

Tuesday 20 July

Parish Council meets in the Lounge at 2 pm

Thursday 22 July

Methodist Women's Fellowship meets in the Lounge at 1.45 pm

The speaker will be Margot Pinar from Perpetual Guardian Trust. (She was recommended to us by Age Concern).

Some good advice

Worrying is carrying tomorrow's load with today's strength... carrying two days at once. It is moving into tomorrow ahead of time. Worrying does not empty tomorrow of its sorrow; it empties today of its strength.
