

God our Creator,
you are the Guardian of our souls,
guide us on our way this day.
Keep us safe from harm.
Deepen our relationship with you,
your Earth and all your family.
Strengthen your love within us that we may be a presence of your peace in our world.
Amen.

(Joyce Rupp, Walking in a Relaxed Manner)

Walking together
riding the bus
singing psalms
breaking bread
pouring wine.

O God, we are your followers
going where you lead us, whether we have wanted to or really known where we are going.

With an adventurous spirit may we always step lightly
with your yoke upon us,
on our journey home to you.
Amen.
