CONFERENCE REGISTRATIONS – ONLINE CONFERENCE

Conference this year will be an online event, where registered members and observers will be able to follow the Conference online. The online registration fee will be $170 per person (incl. GST).

Conference Reports will be available separately as an electronic PDF copy.

The registration form is now available at Conference 2025 » The Methodist Church of New Zealand

NOTE: registration will close off on Friday 24 October

Ensure you take careful note of this date as you will not be able to register after close-off.

There will be no printed copies of Agenda's being posted out but every member that registers will receive an electronic PDF copy.

When selecting representatives, parishes and councils/boards are eligible to appoint one lay representative for every presbyter assigned to the parish. A parish without a presbyter may appoint one lay representative.

Registration as an observer is also possible. Observers may attend but do not have the right to speak or participate in decision-making.

Please note: All Conference members and observers must be registered.
