THIS WORLD IS FULL OF DEATH AND RESURRECTION (SATB Version)

Tune: DYING AND RISING

Melody: William L. (Bill) Wallace

Harmony: Graham Hollobon

1. This world is full of death and resurrection;
From Winter's depths new powers of life will surge;
In Nature's way a calm replaces tumult;
When atoms smash trapped energies emerge.
2. This world is full of death and resurrection;
Each star that dies spreads particles through space;
A fallen tree feeds other living things;
The Sun's rays burn and nurture our Earth's face.
3. This world is full of death and resurrection;
Our tears of grief will heal our aching loss;
The death of one creates new living space
Within the cycle of this Earth's green cross.

Alternative tune: HIGHWOOD (WOV 553, CH4 236, MHB 254, NS 462)
